The next meeting of Provincial Grand Lodge and Provincial Grand Chapter will take place at York Racecourse on Saturday 11th May 2019. Provincial Grand Chapter will be opened at 10.30am. Companions are to be seated by 9.45am. Following the meeting, luncheon will be served in one of the function suites at 1.00pm. The meeting of Provincial Grand Lodge will follow at 3.15 pm. Brethren are to be seated by 3.00pm.

Lodge records, which include a member's name, address, telephone number, email address, office and rank, are maintained in accordance with the Provincial Protocol and Lodge Protocol on data protection. The records are accessed and used by the Lodge Secretary, Treasurer, Almoner and Mentor for the administration of the Lodge, Provincial Grand Lodge and Grand Lodge in accordance with the Book of Constitutions and by others in accordance with the Provincial Protocol and the Lodge Protocol. The Lodge and the Province further reserve the right to use data to fulfil the legitimate interests of the Craft.

OVERSEAS LODGES: If any Member is contemplating a visit to an overseas Lodge he must consult with the Provincial Grand Secretary (through the Lodge Secretary) before doing so.

"The Book of Constitutions states that the Supreme Order of the Holy Royal Arch is included in "Pure Antient Freemasonry" and many Brethren take the view that the essential four stage process for every mason is "initiation to exaltation" thereby continuing and completing his Craft degrees. Every Master Mason is invited to consider the desirability of becoming a Royal Arch Mason"

The Lodge of Instruction will be held at 7.15 pm on the third Monday of each month. (Not December) Your support for the Master Elect Stanley Smith would be appreciated for this important part of Masonic education.

Freemasonry Cares: Helping Freemasons, their families and dependents who have financial, healthcare or family need to access a range of support services available to them - Free phone 0800 035 60 90
